Art Teachers, Janis, Nuria, Ron and Kathy, along with quest teacher Harriet took the kindergarten-third grade classes to the Bolinas Museum this week.

They enjoy taking in the current exhibit, Bounty: Fine Food Production in Coastal Marin from 1824 to the 21st century.

Teachers and local farmer Sandy Dierks had students study and sketch pictures about the show and as always had a great time being at the Bolinas Museum

School Year 2016-17 Public Media Release for Free and Reduced-Price Meals

Bolinas-Stinson School District is announcing its policy for providing free and reduced-price meals for children served under the National School Lunch Program and/or School Breakfast Program. Each school and/or the district/agency's central office has a copy of the policy, which may be reviewed by any interested party on request.

Meal applications will be sent to all households with a letter informing parents or guardians of the availability of free and reduced-price meals. To apply, complete one application for all children in the household and submit to the school for processing. Applications are available in the Bolinas school office. Households may submit an Application at any time during the school year. Information provided on the Application will be used for the purpose of determining eligibility and may be verified at any time during the school year by school officials.

Children are eligible for free or reduced-price meals if their household income is less than or equal to the Income Eligibility Guidelines identified below, which will be used to determine eligibility for meal benefits. These guidelines are effective July 1, 2016 through June 30, 2017

Bolinas-Stinson Union School District will notify the household of their children's eligibility for free meals if any household member receives CalFresh, California Work Opportunity and Responsibility to Kids (CalWORKs), or Food Distribution Program Indian Reservations (FDPIR) benefits. Households will also be notified of any child's eligibility for free meals if the individual child is categorized as foster, homeless, migrant, runaway, enrolled in an eligible Head Start, or enrolled in an eligible pre-kindergarten class. An Application is not required if a household receives the eligibility notice from school officials. Households should contact the school immediately regarding any child in the household not included on the eligibility notice. The household must notify school officials if they choose to decline meal benefits.

Households that did not receive the eligibility notice from school officials and would like to apply for meal benefits must submit a complete free and reduced-price application for Bolinas-Stinson Union School District to determine a child's eligibility.
