

The Bolinas Stinson Union School District – Wellness Committee is seeking members to serve. The main charge of this committee is to make wellness policy recommendations to the Board and advise the district on school health and environment related issues, activities, policies and programs. The group will meet at least four times during the school year. Please contact Johanna (johannas@bolinas-stinson.org) if you have questions or would like to serve on this committee.
